ANITA PARRY
• IN A NEW COMEDY DRAMA •

3 THEATRE: WHAT WOULD HELEN MIRREN DO?

Peter Ellis, best known as Chief Superintendent Brownlow in The Bill, directs his wife Anita Parry in this laugh-out-loud one-woman comedy. Susan has worked at the supermarket in Oldham most of her life. Busy with her job, her kids and her elderly mother, she's never given much thought to role-models until, faced with promotion she is forced to adopt one. But her life changes dramatically when she starts to ask herself, 'What would Helen Mirren do?' Parry plays Susan, her boss, her management trainer, her grown-up kids and a host of other characters in this comedy about love, work, letting go and finding out who we really want to be.

Hill Street Theatre, Hill Street, until 22 August (not Tuesdays), 7.25pm, £9, 0131-226 0000
